MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Hurrah, we have the trophy in our hands!!!! The score was 191 (Lakewood) vs. 129 (Wash Park) a total of 320 games. There were 27 Lakewood participants and 19 Wash Park participants. It would have been a larger event had more Wash Park participants would have signed up. Bruce had to turn away many Lakewood potential participants. Great LTA support!!! Bruce did a great job organizing this annual fun event. We had delicious food, lots of friendly competition, lots of sun and loads of fun (particularly winning). The trophy is where it should be.

Please mark your calendar with the Meadow Creek dates provided in the Lobber. We will be starting indoor tennis on October 20th. As a reminder, our annual Vail trip is our September tennis outing.

The LTA Board is seeking a new Newsletter Editor replacement. We thank Jeanie Porter for her diligent work while she held the position. Anyone interested, please call me at 303-456-8871 to discuss. Believe me, the job has gotten MUCH easier now that the majority of LTA members receive their Lobber via e-mail.

See you on the courts, Tillie Wietharn, President

RITA'S REVIEW

News from Swenson's Super Senior tournament: Fourteen of our Lakewood members were in fine form at the Super Sr. Tournament this august: Barb Tobey and Jan Ford won the 70 Ladies doubles and Barb took top honors in the 75 singles against an out of townner from Texas, Rose Marie James. Warren Foltz and Jan Ford were finalists in the 150 mixed doubles (you add the ages) with Price and her Grand Junction partner, Enver Mehemedbasich, taking a first. Price played with 87 year young, Lucy Dettmer, from Salt Lake City, to win the 80 ladie's doubles with Price the winner against Lucy in 80 singles. Lucy Dettmer, #1 in the world and US in 85 singles and winner in doubles with Dodo Cheney was recruited by a California College when she was a 74 year old grandma and did the job for the college. She also played Regis Philbin twice in a N.Y. Indoor Highrise tennis court and beat him both times, all prior to his by-pass surgery, no doubt. Gerry Russell and Laura Thompson won the 60 mixed. Linda Lister and Ann Stafford took out Marcia Sedillo and Janice Aoke in 60 ladie's doubles. Dave Harguth won 65 men's doubles. Congrats to John Lopez and Al Wietharn who won the 70 consolation. Ray Mendoza (best bartender of Margarita's) got to the semis in 70 doubles as did Frank Abel and Craig Mortenson who lost to Dave Harguth and Steve Cookson in the 60 double's consolation. The banquet was at the lovely Rolling Hills Country Club with delicious food and comraderie meeting and greeting old friends like Alvie Willis just getting back into the game after an illness.

I'm here at the hotel Shilo trying to get this off pronto: Played my first match in singles against a pro who took me to three sets, but managed to win, wet, and still dancing ready for the semi finals in singles on sunday and semi's in doubles, as well. Lots of great photos have been recorded from my $700 Pentax I won at the Friendship Cup in Japan last October. Ciao, Rita
